

A Spectacular Location For Any Occasion

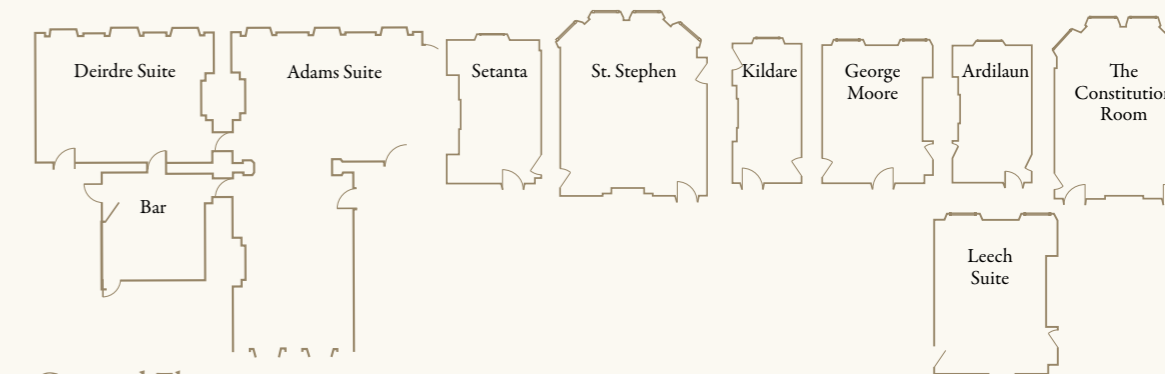

The Shelbourne Dublin, A Renaissance Hotel

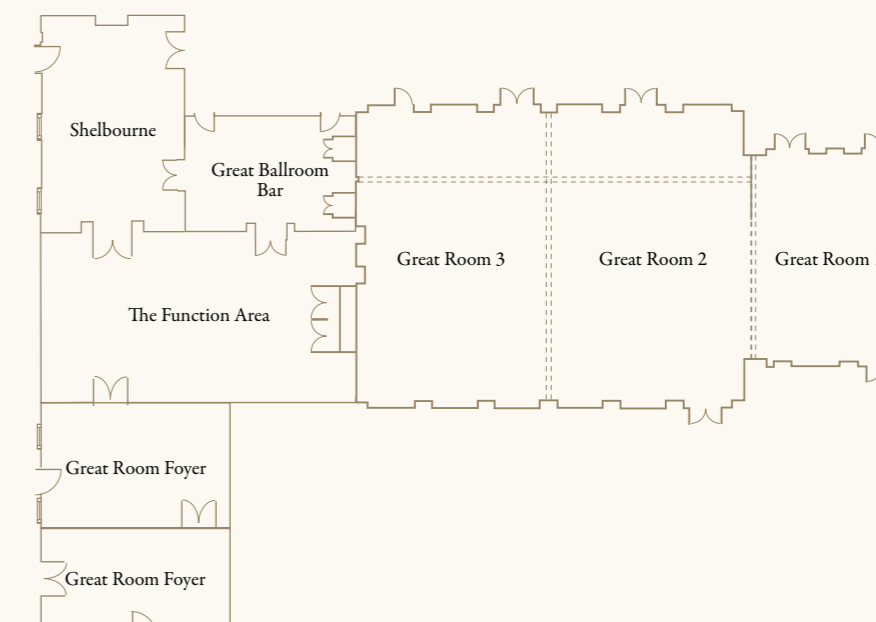

First Floor

Named to reflect the history and soul of The Shelbourne, each room has its own unique character and style. Most famous is the Constitution Suite where the Irish Constitution was drafted in 1922 under the chairmanship of Michael Collins. Alongside history, each room offers high speed internet access and advanced audio-visual facilities.

Ground Floor

The Great Room is capable of seating up to 370 for a banquet. This majestic ballroom includes silk wall coverings as well as state of the art lighting system and audio-visual equipment. Create your own mix of visuals and lighting or set up a spectacular stage flanked with projection screens.

Meetings & Events At The Shelbourne
